

OH IMMACULATE HEART, DELIVER US!

Extract of the prayer of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart that St. John Paul II made on March 25, 1984 before the image of Our Lady of Fatima brought from Cova de Iría, Portugal.

Immaculate Heart of Mary,
help us to conquer the menace of evil,
which so easily takes root
in the hearts of the people of today,
and whose immeasurable effects already weigh down upon our modern world
and seem to block the paths toward the future.

From famine and war, deliver us.
From nuclear war, from incalculable self-destruction,
from every kind of war, deliver us.
From sins against human life from its very beginning,
deliver us.
From hatred and from the demeaning of the dignity
of the children of God, deliver us.

From every kind of injustice in the life of society, both national and international, deliver us.
From readiness to trample on the commandments
of God, deliver us.
From attempts to stifle in human hearts the very truth of God, deliver us.
From the loss of awareness of good and evil,
deliver us.
From sins against the Holy Spirit,
deliver us.

Accept, O Mother of Christ,
this cry laden with the sufferings of all individual human beings, laden with the sufferings
of whole societies.
Help us with the power of the Holy Spirit conquer all
sin:
individual sin and the "sin of the world,"
sin in all its manifestations.

Let there be revealed once more in the history of the world the infinite saving power of the redemption:
the power of the merciful love.
May it put a stop to evil.
May it transform consciences.

May your Immaculate Heart reveal for all the light of hope.

Amen.
