What
makes you
a man?

How much time spent before the mirror gazing at self?

A photograph of a very muscular man in a gym. He is shirtless, showing his chest, abdominal muscles, and arms. He has a goatee and is looking slightly to the right. In the foreground, there are several dumbbells. The background shows gym equipment and a window with orange curtains. A large watermark is overlaid on the image.

“Feeling so grateful for my husband and our little family on this, our 7th wedding anniversary. Our beautiful wedding day was certainly a grand beginning, but all of the mundane and decidedly unglamorous moments of love have been just as glorious. One example (captured in this blurry, terrible photo): After a long day of work, my husband came home to take care of some work in the backyard before it started to rain. Seeing that I was in the midst of trying to get dinner on the table, he simply strapped the baby onto his back, enlisted the 6-yr-old (not pictured, since he is practicing his marching — he’s really into Colonial soldiers right now....), and got to work.”*”
