

First Profession of Vows
Servants of the Pierced Hearts of Jesus and Mary

“May we, like St. Juan Diego, be totally docile, available, and determined to bring the light of Christ to the world. May we be totally available to go across the mountains to be Her messengers and to announce the Gospel to a world in need of receiving God's love and God's light. Let us be living images of Our Lady and like her let us manifest the potency of Christ's life within us.”
